

RICH WOMAN IS HUNTED BY HOUNDS

Barefooted and Clad Only in Nightdress, Miss Mary Rogers, of Virginia, Victim of Tuberculosis, Eludes Nurse at Saranac Lake.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., June 26.—Bloodhounds were brought here today to aid in the search for Miss Mary Rogers, a daughter of Alexander Rogers, of Leesburg, Va., and a niece of the late Gov. Oden Bowie, of Maryland, who disappeared from the Andrew Baker cottage here in a strange manner that has awakened the criminal authorities to unusual interest.

Searching parties that have been sent out in the vicinity have made fruitless efforts to find some trace of the young woman. The wire window screen of Miss Rogers's room had been out and there were evidences of a struggle in her room.

A careful examination of the ground outside the window of the young woman's room shows the imprint of two bare feet, both left. Justice of the Peace Strong has issued subpoenas in John Doe proceedings and will make a thorough investigation into Miss Rogers's disappearance.

His first subpoena has been issued to William N. Smith, a prominent lawyer of Baltimore, who for many years has been counsel for the Rogers family. He came here with Miss Rogers and Miss Jane, a trained nurse. Miss Rogers was thirty years old, and for the past three years has been a sufferer from tuberculosis.

Nurse Finds Patient Gone.

Arriving here with Mr. Smith and Miss Jane, the invalid went to the Riverside Inn, where she remained some time. She placed herself in the hands of Dr. Morrison Brown, a physician here, for treatment. A week ago she left the inn with her nurse and went to the Baker cottage. Mr. Smith remained at the inn.

Her disappearance was discovered at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, when Miss Jane awoke and found her charge's bed vacant. A hurried investigation discovered evidences of disorder in the room. The screen in the window had been out and hurriedly, judging from the gashes in the wire. Only the young woman's night-robe was missing.

Searching parties made up of guides and mountaineers were organized and set out to hunt for the young woman through the woods. The Saranac River, near by, was dragged, without result, and, with the exception of footprints under the window of Miss Rogers's room, there is no other trace of her. All through the day and night the searching parties sought some further trace in vain.

Justice of the Peace Strong took part in the hunt, and, after a careful examination of witnesses, decided to make a rigid inquiry. He ordered that bloodhounds be brought here from Dannemora prison to-day, when the search will be continued with renewed vigor.

When first questioned by the Justice of the Peace, Lawyer Smith refused to tell Miss Rogers's home address. Miss Jane was equally reticent. This caused the ire of the local magistrate, and he sent for District Attorney Egan, of Ticonderoga. He was instructed by the District Attorney to push his inquiry into the matter, beginning John Doe proceedings.

It was then got from the Baltimore lawyer that three years ago the young woman—she is thirty years old—became a patient in the local sanatorium. She had a stomach trouble developed into tuberculosis.

Justice of the Peace Strong took

COURT FORBIDS THE MORGANS TO WED AGAIN

Justice Keogh Signs Papers of Separation in Favor of the Wife.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 26.—The final decree of Supreme Court Justice Keogh, separating Mrs. Edith Parsons Morgan, daughter of John E. Parsons, a millionaire lawyer, from her husband, David Percy Morgan, a wealthy New York clubman, was filed to-day. Under its provisions neither husband nor wife can marry again during the life of either party.

Justice Keogh finds that Mr. Morgan deserted his wife on May 28, 1904, when he kidnapped his children and took them to Ithaca, Pa. The decree is considered an odd one, as it gives absolute custody of the four Morgan children—Helen, Edith, Percy and John E.—to Mrs. Morgan.

The order says: "Plaintiff is solely entitled to and charged with the custody, care and education of the children. Orders—That the defendant be and he hereby is restrained and enjoined from in any manner interfering or attempting to interfere with the right of the plaintiff to the exclusive custody of the children and to care for and educate them. Orders—That plaintiff and defendant hereby are forever separated. That neither of said parties is at liberty to marry any other person during the life of the other party."

Mr. Morgan is permitted to see his children at the home of Mrs. Morgan or any other place where they may be for the space of two hours in the morning or afternoon every two weeks, the defendant to notify the plaintiff at least two days before the time when he expects to visit the children.

To Mrs. Morgan is granted the right to take the children out of the State or anywhere she pleases for the period of four months each year. Mr. Morgan is not ordered to pay his wife alimony or for the education of his children.

It is reported that Mr. Morgan intends to appeal to the Appellate Division.

WAKES FROM HER WEEK'S STUPOR

Little Cassie McBride Opens Her Eyes and Recognizes Her Mother—Physicians Think She Has Pneumonia.

Cassie McBride, the six-year-old Williamsburg child who has been 1943 in a stupor for nearly a week at the Eastern District Hospital, opened her eyes today for the first time since last Tuesday night and showed by her glances that she recognized her mother, Mrs. Lizzie McBride, of No. 32 Division avenue, who was at her bedside.

This is the first sign of awakening the child has shown since she was brought to the hospital Wednesday noon in a comatose condition. The mother of the child said she believed that the coma was caused by pneumonia, which she contracted while in the hospital.

Although Cassie could open her eyes today and seemed to recognize her mother she could not move, and from the fact that she has developed a high temperature the hospital physicians have decided to treat her for pneumonia, which they think she has contracted.

THIEF SHOT HIS PARTNER AFTER ROBBERY SAFE

Dynamiters Got Only a Small Haul, but Seem to Have Got in Quarrel Over It.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 26.—Safe-blowers visited Croton Falls early to-day and dynamited the safe in the office of George Hueston, president of the Croton Falls Electric Light Company. In order to weaken the sound the croakers covered a safe with two valuable rugs, but must have used too much dynamite as the office was completely wrecked.

The safe-blowers expected that they would find a big sum in the safe, but President Hueston had deposited nearly all his cash on Saturday, and they only secured a bag of silver and a gold watch. A posse of farmers is now scouring the woods in search of them.

It was learned that two men were seen to drive rapidly away after the explosion and around the whole village. The men were quavering. At Somers one of the men stopped to have a gunshot wound in his arm dressed. He said he had quarreled with his companion over money, and had been shot by him during a fit of anger.

An attempt was made to-day to blow open a safe in Putnam County.

LORD CURZON, ANGRY, READY TO RESIGN OFFICE

Objects to Lord Kitchener Being Given Control of Army in India.

SIMLA, India, June 26.—It is freely rumored that the Viceroy Lord Curzon of Kedleston, has either already tendered his resignation or shortly will do so, in consequence of the decision of the home government, whereby Lord Kitchener, Commander-in-Chief of the forces in India, has been given complete control of the army in India.

Two special meetings of the Indian Council have been held since the publication in London of the Blue Book approving of Lord Kitchener's plans, the approval of which is considered to be a serious blow to Lord Curzon, as he has been practically the whole Council unanimously advised against the decision ultimately adopted.

The keenest excitement prevails in official circles here. The Times of India declares that India cannot afford to lose the services of Lord Curzon, who dominates the Indian Council.

LONDON, June 26.—While it is considered more probable that Lord Curzon will tender his resignation in consequence of the decision of the home government, it is not believed that it will be accepted. It is believed that Lord Curzon will continue to serve, but that he will be out of the picture at least until the end of the year.

What has happened of late in India extends from November to March. A question asked in the House of Commons this afternoon elicited from Indian Secretary Brodrick the statement that the Government had received no information to the effect that Curzon had any desire or intention of resigning the Viceroyalty of India.

22 CADETS ARE DROWNED IN NIGHT CRASH

Danish Training Ship Sunk in Collision with British Merchant Steamer.

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, June 26.—The Danish cadet training schooner Georg-Stage was rammed last night and sunk by the British steamer Ancona. The Georg-Stage sank in one and one-half minutes. Twenty-two cadets were drowned and fifty-seven were rescued.

The boys were all in their bunks at the time of the disaster. The night was overcast, but it was not so dark that objects could not be seen at some distance.

The Ancona was considerably damaged along her water line. The port authorities have placed an embargo on the Ancona, which will remain here until the inquiry into the collision is completed.

Only one body has been recovered by the divers who have gone down into the wreck. First Officer Myhre, of the Georg-Stage, attributes the accident to the Ancona changing her course. He said the Ancona's bow crashed seven feet into the training schooner's side, bringing down the latter's masts and rigging and preventing many of the crew from getting to the deck.

Those who were not entangled in the wreckage sprang on board the Ancona and assisted in launching the lifeboats. Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 235 tons register and was 100 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Myhre himself jumped into the water and rescued many boys who were entangled in the rigging.

PHYSICIAN FOUND DEAD IN HIS CHAIR

Evidences of Drug Indulgence Discovered Near Body of Dr. Bryan.

Dr. Walker Bryan was found dead today in his office, at No. 106 Madison avenue. Death is supposed to have resulted from an overdose of some drug to the use of which he was addicted. Although he had only a small practice, appearances indicate that he did not take his life intentionally.

Mrs. C. H. Winthrop is the owner of the Madison avenue house. Dr. Bryan rented two rooms from her last April. One, on the ground floor, he fitted up as an office. The other, on the top floor, he occupied as a bedroom.

When he engaged the rooms Dr. Bryan told Mrs. Winthrop that he was a graduate of the University of New York and had served in Brooklyn hospitals before settling up as a practitioner in Manhattan. For a time he had an office in East Twenty-third street.

Several tenants called to see Dr. Bryan today, but his office door was locked. Mrs. Winthrop went to his bedroom but found that he had not occupied the bed last night. Then she sent to the West Third street station for a policeman.

Detective Carroll and Patrolman Taylor forced a window and entered the office. They found Dr. Bryan, fully dressed, sitting in a chair in the middle of the room. On a table by his side were evidences of drug indulgence. An ambulance surgeon was called, said that the doctor had been dead for several hours.

Dr. Bryan was about thirty-eight years of age. He had no visitors outside of his patients and Mrs. Winthrop knows nothing of his family. He played in a baseball game in Brooklyn on Saturday.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED BY TRAIN AT WEST FARMS.

Victim Was About 35 Years Old and Well Dressed—Description of Body and Clothes.

An unidentified man was killed by a train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad near West Farms, N. Y., yesterday. The victim was about thirty-five years old, five feet six inches in height, weighing about 160 pounds and dressed in blue and white striped shirt, dark coat and trousers and black shoes.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

VICTIM OF PLOT, SAYS MRS. SPAIN

Wife of Canadian Official and Capt. Salmon, Who Is Under Indictment, Tells Remarkable Story of Conspiracy.

District Attorney Jerome, when seen today, was not particularly interested in the accusations made by Captain Reginald Salmon, in the Tomba prison under indictment that he, says, has for its foundation a conspiracy of international importance. The District Attorney says that, despite the assertions of the accused that the whole affair is a social and political plot involving prominent persons in the Canadian Government and in the "407" of Ottawa, he must stand trial the same as any other person under indictment.

Capt. Salmon until recently was Canadian Wreck Commissioner of the Dominion Government. He was succeeded in that position by Capt. Osprey J. Spain. After his relief Capt. Salmon came to this city. The wife of Capt. Spain also came here and took up apartments at No. 151 Second avenue. She is a friend of Lady and Lord Minto, of the Dominion Government.

Mrs. Spain is also involved in the scandal, as Dr. Andrew Fulton, of No. 370 Fifth street, Brooklyn, is accused of having performed an illegal operation on her.

The answer to the charge made against Dr. Fulton is the same as the one made by Capt. Salmon—part of the conspiracy. All three declare that the money to further this conspiracy is coming from the enemies of Capt. Salmon in Canada.

As soon as it became known in the government set of Ottawa society that Capt. Salmon and Mrs. Spain were in this city, stories that they were living together as man and wife were freely circulated. It is said, following these stories came the announcement that the Spains had drawn up a separation agreement because of the cruelty of Capt. Spain to his wife.

Then came the arrest of Capt. Salmon and his subsequent indictment. In the meantime Mrs. Spain lost her position in the Young Women's Christian Association. She believes that her misfortune is part of the plot to ruin her and Capt. Salmon. Since this trouble she has been in want.

Mrs. Spain denies that she lived with Capt. Salmon, and in her assertion she is supported by the janitor of her flat at No. 151 Second avenue.

Dr. Fulton denies that he ever performed an illegal operation on Mrs. Spain. He is ready to swear that he did perform a simple operation on her, but that it was perfectly legitimate.

FOUND DYING ON A CAR TRACK

Unidentified Man Had Been Run Down by a Brooklyn Trolley or Had Fallen from One Early To-Day.

An unidentified man is dying in the Eastern District Hospital from a fractured skull and internal injuries which the police think were caused early today by having been run down by a street car or by a fall from a car.

The headlight of a Broadway trolley car disclosed the dying man lying on the tracks at Broadway and Wallabout street, Williamsburg, and the motor man, thinking the man was intoxicated, stopped the car and sent the conductor ahead to pull him from the track.

The conductor found that the man was badly injured, and called an ambulance, which took him to the hospital. Some money in the man's pocket showed that he was a respectable man for the affair.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

The police learned that a Red avenue car preceded the one whose headlights revealed the man. The victim, probably a clerk, was dressed in mixed black suit with white shirt and collar.

GUESTS FOUND HOSTESS DEAD

Mrs. Love Had Fallen from Stepladder While Preparing to Celebrate Her Silver Wedding and Was Fatally Injured.

Guests who had gathered to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Robert and Anna Love at their home, No. 295 South Eighth street, Williamsburg, entered a house of death, and instead of being greeted by the hostess wept over the lifeless body of Mrs. Love, who in preparing for the event sustained injuries which yesterday caused her death.

Mr. and Mrs. Love were married June 25, 1880, and after twenty-five years of married life, lacking one day, they invited their friends to their home yesterday to make merry on the date of the silver wedding anniversary.

All Saturday Mrs. Love worked about the house making everything sparkling and span for the welcoming of the guests. The tidy housewife had characterized her twenty-five years of married life, and she cleaned every wall and picture in her preparations. Standing on a stepladder while she dusted the picture, her foot slipped and Mrs. Love fell, her head striking first the stepladder and then the stove.

Her skull was fractured by the fall. Mrs. Love was rendered unconscious by the fall. Her son, Robert Love, Jr., hearing his mother fall, rushed in and found her on the floor unconscious.

In the excitement due to the accident there was no time to send word to the guests of the misfortune which had befallen Mrs. Love. Yesterday she died at her home.

During the course of the day the guests who had come to the silver wedding anniversary arrived, and instead of joyous merrymaking were met by sorrowing friends and relatives. The day for rejoicing was turned into one of mourning.

Mrs. Love was forty-eight years old. Robert Love is a wholesale meat dealer in New York.

WICKES TRIAL SEPT. 11.

Mr. Jerome Agrees to Postponement of "Jarvis" Letter Case.

By agreement between District Attorney Jerome and John E. Helges, counsel for Thomas P. Wickes, the trial of the lawyer for the authorship of the "Lewis Jarvis" letters to Commodore Weston, of Newark, was set for Sept. 11 by Justice Davy to-day.

WATERS PIANOS

On account of overlook we will offer this week a large number of good, used Upright Pianos at specially attractive low prices—from $50 upward.

Payments Only $5 Monthly

Call early and you will get a genuine bargain.

Send postal for catalogue.

Horace Waters & Co.,

Three Stores:

134 Fifth Ave., near 18th St.

127 West 42d St., near Broadway.

Harlem Branch (Open Evenings),

254 West 125th St., near 8th Ave.

Hearn & Hyman

Correct Dress for Women.

To-Morrow, the Second Day of Our Great Second Annual Clearance Sale.

More than $100,000 worth of new high-class Summer merchandise, consisting of

Costumes, Suits, Waists, Coats and Skirts,

All in qualities made famous by the Hearn & Hyman store.

We are used to the spectacle of a crowded store on the Mondays following the specially interesting announcements in the Sunday papers, but the response this week is simply astounding. As we write this morning, our store is thronged from top to bottom and all signs point to a day of tremendous business that will tax our facilities to the utmost.

We regard this, not merely as a result of an extraordinary announcement, but the effect of our earnest and unremitting efforts on all past occasions to secure public confidence.

We believe our store is to-day full of people who have learned to rely absolutely upon our promises.

We begin this great sale with more than $100,000 worth of the finest of this season's summer apparel. It will be physically impossible to make serious inroads upon this stock in one short day. To-night every trace of disorder will be removed, and on Tuesday we shall be ready for the second contingent. However distant you may be, or whatever the time consumed in reaching us, you will be amply repaid.

20 West 23d Street, Opposite Fifth Av. Hotel.